I really enjoyed working with Enock Etuahene. He was very upbeat and excited to learn new things. There were times when neither of us knew what to do and he was on the ball, as a navigator, looking up code examples from ChatGPT.

Sadly, there were times when neither of us could figure out a problem, so we had to ask AI for help, but this is to be expected. It's going to take both of us time to improve on our trouble shooting skill. I'm positive we are both up for the challenge!

I would enjoy working with Enock Etuahene again!

I rate Enock a 4.
